

Outstanding Contributions to Mental Health Recognized at CPAs 59th Annual Conference

Canadian psychiatrists have honoured their colleagues - psychiatrists, psychiatric residents and other exceptional individuals - for their contributions to the mental health of Canadians. This acknowledgement took place during the Canadian Psychiatric Association's (CPA's) 59th Annual Conference in St. John's, August 27-29, 2009.

The Commission is pleased to announce that MHCC Chair, Michael Kirby, was presented with an honorary CPA membership and Board member, David Goldbloom was recognized as a Fellow of the CPA.
