

Kaiser Foundation Announces Call for Nominations For 2010 National Awards for Excellence Program In Mental Health and Addictions Initiatives

Vancouver, British Columbia - The Kaiser Foundation is pleased to announce the Call for Nominations for the 2010 National Awards for Excellence Program in mental health and addictions initiatives.

The National Awards for Excellence Program honours the outstanding work being done by the thousands of Canadian organizations, communities, individuals and media who are engaged in the fields of mental health and addictions. Each award recipient receives a $10,000 grant to be directed to a recognized charity of their choice.

The 2010 National Awards for Excellence event will take place on the evening of May 13, 2010 in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Nominations are solicited widely from across Canada. Submissions are reviewed by the National Awards for Excellence Program Secretariat comprised of individuals working in the addictions and mental health field. Recommendations are forwarded to the National Awards Program Advisory Board for review and final selection of the Award recipients.

There are seven award categories:

- Excellence in Aboriginal Programming
- Excellence in Community Programming
- Excellence in Leadership
- Excellence in Media Reporting
- Excellence in Mental Health and Substance Use Programming
- Excellence in Public Policy
- Excellence in Youth Leadership

The National Awards for Excellence Program was launched in 2006 by The Kaiser Foundation in partnership with a growing roster of governments, foundations, corporate and private national partners across the country. This commitment to recognizing outstanding achievements in dealing with mental health, addictions and related issues demonstrates that national leadership recognizes the importance of dealing openly with these complex issues.
